NEW Program at Interweave Community Learning Center!! Growing Up in the Internet Age - Teen Age Intimacy and Isolation: Growing up is more challenging than ever before! Learn how parents and teens can work together to support, and challenge, each other. Children and teenagers face unprecedented demands and pressures. Learn from a veteran educator, Dr. Karen Rezach, Head of Middle School and Director of the Ethics Institute at Kent Place, who will lead a presentation and student panel discussion, how you, parent or teen, can navigate your way more creatively through the post-modern landscape. Not just the prevalence of drugs, alcohol and a highly sexualized culture, but the intimacy and isolation of an internet presence: instant availability via cell-phone and texting, virtual networking via Facebook, MySpace, and chat rooms.

Today, Sunday, February 7th, from 3 to 5 pm, at Interweave, 31 Woodland Avenue (at Calvary Church), Summit, NJ. Adults $20, Teens $10. Come join Interweave for this valuable discussion! Parents and teens of Christ Church welcome!
