Swap Meet at Summit High School this Saturday: An appeal from Allyn Engle of Summit High School: On Saturday June 11th from 9am to 12pm there is going to be a Swap Meet at the Summit High School cafeteria at 125 Kent Place. A Swap Meet is a place where people can bring garage sale quality goods that they no longer use and trade them for other people's items. There is no money exchanged and anyone can come. These items can be electronic appliances, gently used clothing, electronics goods and small furniture. All left over items will be donated to the veterans association. This Swap Meet is being pushed by the environmental club as a way to keep people from throwing away these items and having them end up in a land fill. Thank you for helping our effort!
