Doxology

In the Lord I'll Be Ever Thankful

The image shows three staves of musical notation for the doxology. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a 3/4 time signature. The melody consists of quarter and eighth notes. The lyrics are: "In the Lord I'll be e-ver thank-ful, in the Lord I will re -". The second staff continues the melody with a triplet of eighth notes. The lyrics are: "joice, look to God do not be a - fraid, lift up your". The third staff concludes the melody with a double bar line. The lyrics are: "voi - ces the Lord is near, lift up your voi - ces the Lord is near!".

(Children Pre-K through 5th grade may leave for Sunday school at this time.)

Men's Retreat: Sat. April 27th & Sunday April 28th with a "day trip" option as well.

Using Jesus' Parable of the Prodigal Son - a tale of rebellion, risk and reconciliation, the men's retreat will explore issues of faith and masculinity. How do men create and find faith? How can questions and doubts strengthen our faith? How does faith help us to accept what seems unacceptable in ourselves?

Tim Barrett is a licensed therapist in private practice in Chatham. An ordained Episcopal priest, Dr. Barrett leads retreats and lectures widely on the integration of spirituality and psychology.

NJ Wellesley Club sponsors program on the working poor in New Jersey:

Stephanie Hoopes Halpin, Assistant Professor and Director of the New Jersey DataBank at the School of Public Affairs and Administration at Rutgers is the lead researcher and author of United Way of Northern New Jersey's ALICE Report (ALICE :Asset Limited, Income Constrained, and Employed.)

Highlights of this study will be given next Thursday, March 7, 2013 at 7:00 pm at the Millburn Public Library. Professor Hoopes Halpin will describe how New Jersey low-wage workers who earn more than the federal poverty level cannot make enough to sustain a reasonably healthy standard of living in this state. The program is sponsored by the NJ Wellesley Club and is free and open to the public.
